

French

In French we discuss and compare aspects of our culture with French and other European cultures. This includes languages, national celebrations, different types of food and drink and famous places and cities in various countries. White Court celebrates the European Day of Languages on 26 September every year. We have also had correspondence with children from schools in Greece.