

Curriculum Overview for Year 5: Cinderella-Rocker-Flatford

Literacy

- Non-fiction: J.Constable biography, Flatford recount, letter writing, persuasive writing
- Fiction: Play scripts, Twilight Poems
- Speaking and Listening: Play scripts, Year 5 Production
- Revision and Independent target writing - Pobble activities
- Weekly word work –spellings, definitions and etymology.
- Weekly GPS focus
- Comprehension - Guided Reading sessions and focussed weekly comprehension activities
-

Art and Design

- Artist focus - J. Constable (cross curriculum link to Geography).
- Water colours

Physical Education

- Cricket
- Athletics
- Sports Day

Mathematics

- Basic algebra - understanding the nth term
- Revision: the 4 rules (column and short methods), long multiplication & long division.
- Complete, read and interpret information in tables, including timetables. Solve problems involving converting between units of time.
- Solve comparison, sum and difference problems using information presented in a line graph
- Properties of shapes - missing angles & sides, identifying irregular polygons
- Identify angles at a point and on a straight line. Identify turns in degrees.

Geography

- Directional and positional language
- Use of compasses
- Map routes of local areas
- Field work during visit to Flatford Mill
- Changes in landscapes over time

Design and Technology

- Props, backdrops and costumes for Olivia

Computing

- Programming using Scratch
- Data Handling

Music

- To sing with confidence and expression.
- To perform songs to an audience.
- To review and evaluate music across a range of genres, styles and traditions, including the works from well known musicals.

Science—Living things

- Flatford visit w/c 29.4.19
- Life cycles
- Classifications of animals: Amphibians, Reptiles, Insects, Birds
- Seed germination
- Reproduction of plants
- Describe the changes as humans develop from birth to old age.

History

Main topics taught in the Autumn & Spring

The History of J. Constable & Flatford Mill

French

- Revision of all topics taught in the Autumn & Spring.
- Oral presentations.

Religious Education

- Living as a Buddhist: Devotional Practices and the Middle Way.